TALKIN' BOUT YOUR GENERATION

TOP TRADED STOCKS BY GEN GROUP

Generationally, there were clear trends in how Superhero customers invested. For both Gen Z and Millennials, NDQ was their most traded stock in 2022. Gen X investors looked to Wall Street with TSLA taking pole position while Baby Boomer investors had their eye on FMG.

BUILDING BLOCKS

TOP TRADED STOCKS & ETFS IN MINOR ACCOUNTS

For Superhero investors building portfolios for their children via our Minor Account feature, CXO and TSLA were the most traded Australian and U.S. shares for Minor Accounts. On the ETF front, VAS and VOO were the most traded Australian and U.S. ETFs for Minor Accounts in 2022.

TOP OF THE STOCKS

STATE BY STATE

For the mainland states, CXO was clearly number one when it came to Australian companies as NSW, VIC, SA, NT, ACT, QLD and WA's most traded stock. Lithium was still of interest to our Tasmanian investors with LEL taking out first place in terms of Tasmania's most traded Australian share in 2022.

EYE SPY

MOST WATCHED STOCKS

In addition to being among the most traded stocks on Superhero, CXO and TSLA were the two most followed companies on the Superhero platform and NDQ the most followed ETF – referring to the 'Follow' feature available on the platform.
